Psalm 46:1-7
God Is Our Refuge And Strength

Album: Songs of Divine Protection
Words from the Holy Bible, New King James Version
Music by Marie-Anne Thiang

G D
1 God is our refuge and strength,
C D
A very present help in trouble.
G D
2 Therefore we will not fear,
C D
Even though the earth be removed,
Em D C D Em D C D
And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
Em D C D
3 Though its waters roar and be troubled,
Am C D
Though the mountains shake with its swelling.

G D C
4 There is a river whose streams shall make glad the city of God,
Am G C D
The holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High.
Em G Am D
5 God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved;
F C D
God shall help her, just at the break of dawn.

Em C D Em C D Em
6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved;
C D Am D
He uttered His voice, the earth melted.
Em C D Em D C D Em
7 The LORD of hosts is with us;
C Am D
The God of Jacob is our refuge.
